On 07/12/2018, Late Sau. S. R. Abhang Memorial College of Arts and Commerce organized a seminar to celebrate Constitution Day with a focus on the theme "The Indian Knowledge System and the Constitution." Held at the seminar hall the event brought together experts, scholars, and enthusiasts to delve into the rich heritage and contemporary relevance of India's traditional knowledge systems within the constitutional framework.

The seminar commenced with an inaugural address by Mr. Ravindra Rasal who highlighted the significance of Constitution Day and the importance of understanding the deep-rooted connection between the Indian Constitution and the country's ancient knowledge systems.

The keynote speaker, Mr. Ravindra Rasal, delivered an enlightening presentation on the integration of Indian traditional knowledge into the constitutional framework. His talk covered various aspects, including historical perspectives, philosophical foundations, and the relevance of these knowledge systems in modern governance and law. His ability to weave complex concepts into an accessible narrative was particularly appreciated by the audience.

Following the keynote address, a panel discussion featuring distinguished experts such as Mr. Sanjay Abhang, Smita Sansare, and Mrs. Devika Sanjay Abhang explored topics such as the influence of Vedic texts on constitutional principles, the role of traditional medicine in contemporary health policy, and the preservation of cultural heritage through constitutional safeguards. The discussions were engaging and thought-provoking, prompting lively interactions with the audience.

The seminar also included a series of breakout sessions where participants could engage in more focused discussions on specific aspects of the Indian knowledge system. Topics ranged from ancient legal traditions to the impact of traditional ecological knowledge on sustainable development. These sessions provided a platform for in-depth exploration and exchange of ideas among scholars and practitioners.

The event concluded with a valedictory session and integrated India's vast traditional knowledge within the framework of the Constitution.

Overall, the seminar was a resounding success, fostering greater awareness and appreciation of India's rich knowledge heritage and its relevance to contemporary constitutional discourse. The positive feedback from attendees underscored the seminar's impact and the value of such intellectual endeavours.

Late Sau. S. R. Abhang Memorial College of Arts and Commerce extends heartfelt thanks to all the speakers, panellists, participants, and volunteers who contributed to making this seminar a memorable and impactful event. We look forward to organizing similar events in the future to further this important dialogue.

LETTER OF GRATITUDE

Mr. Ravindra Rasal

On behalf of Late Sau. S. R. Abhang Memorial College of Arts and Commerce, I would like to express our heartfelt gratitude for your outstanding contribution as a guest speaker at our seminar on "The Constitution and the Indian Knowledge System" held on 07/12/2018. Your insightful presentation and deep understanding of the subject significantly enriched the event.

Your ability to connect the dots between the Indian Constitution and the traditional knowledge systems was truly enlightening. The depth of your knowledge and the clarity with which you presented complex concepts were appreciated by everyone in attendance. Your talk not only provided a historical perspective but also highlighted the contemporary relevance of these ancient systems within the framework of our constitution.

The positive feedback we have received from the attendees is a testament to the impact of your words. Your participation has undoubtedly inspired many and contributed to the success of the seminar. We are deeply grateful for the time and effort you took to share your expertise with us.

Once again, thank you for your invaluable contribution. We hope to have the pleasure of collaborating with you in future events and initiatives. If there is any way we can be of assistance or if you have any suggestions for future seminars, please do not hesitate to reach out.
